

Could it be you are a select of our LORD?

Having a special job, being one of the 144?

To take care of a group, perhaps they be small;

To keep them alive, sustaining life to them all.

Are you the one who will keep them alive?

Are you the select one who will help them survive?

All through time God always had a group;

Who would survive the tumult and make it through.

God wants witnesses left on this planet;

To proclaim the testimony of all that will happen.

Just like in the days of Noah, there was a group of elect;

Those whose very survival depended on a select.

God instructed Noah and he did believe;

Then he told his family and they too received.

Noah prepared the ark to protect family and float;

For when the waters from earth and sky would explode.

Only the seven plus Noah did listen.

God shut in the eight for safe keeping.

It was the haven of life for those eight;

To survive the judgment, the flood so great!

But those in the world would not listen to him.

Giving no heed to the coming judgment for sin.

To think that in the entire world there would be only eight,

Who would survive God's wrath, to have such a fate!

So now we look and see the signs.

The days of Noah are here at this time.

Are you the blessed one who will warn?

Those who are close to you will be protected from harm.

Do you know what G_D's assignment is for you?

To bring them to life, to survive what God is about to do.

God has His select ones, they are the bride.

Those who cling to her robe will be the ones who survive.

For that day may come like any other day;

People doing their thing, engaging in play.

Things may seem normal if you are not paying attention.

Soon comes swift judgment from another dimension!

Are you a beloved, one of the 144?

Are you preparing? You should know what's in store.

For if you are one and choose to believe,

You will witness G_D's plan, to you they will cleave.

The brethren's very survival will soon be at stake.

They must stay close to a beloved for their own life's sake!

If you are a beloved, meant for this time;

Stay on course, watch for the signs.

Helping others to survive, that you've been given.

Do you know who you are, do you understand the mission?

Know there are others on earth right now;

Who are preparing and waiting for this to come about.

Listen to G_D, He will put things in motion

He may even bestow a double portion!

Most important for the 144, for this they yearn;

To sing the new song of the Lamb, to call for His return.

I have waited so long to sing for my King;

Yeshua come soon, we are all waiting!

In the meantime, the beloveds will take care of your elect.

Thank You Father for the charge of the select!
